

300 Women decide to quit from Labour

Would you feel uncomfortable if somebody from another gender who isn't legalised as transgender has access to womanly features still being a man. Well being the diverse place it is the Labour party accepts any body with different backgrounds ,races and gender but some times this can go to far...

More than 300 hundred female Labour Party members are due to quit over a decision to include transgender candidates on all-women shortlists even if they have not legally changed gender. Drafts of resignations letters penned by Labour activist MayDay4Women warns that its supporters 'cannot continue to be in that takes women for granted'

Many women say:

'Sex is not self defined characteristic and it is disingenuous for Labour to pretend that it is'

The women are now debating for the transgender women/men to be legalised or not to be allowed to have able access to the other sexes facilities.
